

MINISTER TO DEBATE THE LIBERAL DEMOCRAT APPROACH TO COUNCIL HOUSING

DCLG Minister Stephen Williams MP will be debating what more can be done to boost the supply of council housing with limited funding at a National Federation of ALMOs fringe event.

Issues to be debated will include:

- Building new council housing
- The impact of welfare reform
- Providing community services for tenants
- Promoting the arms-length model of management

Joining the Minister on the panel will be Leader of Stockport Council Cllr Sue Derbyshire, and Vice-Chair of the NFA Hugh Broadbent. The event will be chaired by former DCLG Minister Sir Andrew Stunell MP.

Join us on Monday 6th October at 6:15pm in the Staffa of the Crowne Plaza just outside the secure zone.

Refreshments will be served.

Telephone: 024 7685 1729 Email: info@almos.org.uk  @nfa_almos

National Federation of ALMOs

Octavia House, Westwood Way, Coventry, CV4 8JP

www.almos.org.uk

ALMOs know the difference a safe, affordable and warm home can make to families and neighbourhoods. We want the next government to support ALMOs to build and care for their communities.