Berneslai Homes shortlisted for two regional awards

Berneslai Homes were pleased to have been shortlisted for two awards last week at the Barnsley and Rotherham Chamber of Commerce Business Awards, held at Magna Science Adventure Centre.

Office Apprentice Cory Hampson was shortlisted for the 'Apprentice of the Year' Award. Cory was nominated as he has demonstrated outstanding occupation progress, practical ability, positive approach to employment and personal qualities. Berneslai Homes were also highly commended for the 'Business Community Impact Award' for their Digital Device Doctors programme in partnership with Barnsley Council. The programme showed continued commitment, enthusiasm and energy in working to improve the environment or quality of life within a community.

Berneslai Homes Chief Executive Helen Jaggar adds, "We are really pleased to have been shortlisted at the awards. The awards recognise the hard work of businesses who go the extra mile and really make a difference to local people."
