

Our House Our Street: The Place We Call Home

Shortlisted entries into the National Federation of ALMOs (NFA) 2017 Photography Competition Our House Our Street: The Place We Call Home are announced.

As a member organisation representing the interest of more than half a million homes the National Federation of ALMOs (NFA) and its members are tired of the negative images and stereotypes often shown in the media of our tenants and communities. The NFA's Annual Photography Competition challenges the perception that social housing is undesirable and continues to tell the story of our tenants and residents, and the places they are proud to call home. Each of the twelve shortlisted photographs gives us a glimpse into the lives of our tenants - transporting us inside the homes that are loved and to the heart of the places that bring neighbours together to create a sense of belonging.

The twelve shortlisted photographs will be revealed as a Photography Exhibition at the NFA Annual Conference on the evening of the 27th April. All visitors to the exhibition will have opportunity to vote for the winning image which will be announced following dinner on the evening of the 27th April 2017.

The shortlisted ALMOs are:

1. Colchester Borough Homes
2. Cornwall Housing
3. Eastbourne Homes
4. Homes for Haringey
5. Kensington and Chelsea TMO
6. Kirklees Neighbourhood Housing
7. Northampton Partnership Homes
8. Nottingham City Homes
9. Northwards Housing
10. Stockport Homes
11. Tower Hamlets Homes (2 photographs)

We cannot change public perceptions overnight, but with the support of our Media Partner 24Housing and our Sponsor Resource the National Federation of ALMOs will continue to share the stories of our tenants through the powerful medium of photography.
