

Bury Council and Six Town Housing News – December 2018

A flagship extra care scheme, Peachment Place, is opening in the New Year. Bury Council's first extra care scheme, a £9.6 million development, will welcome its first residents in January.

Council leader Rishi Shori visited the site on the 6th December in the company of shadow housing minister John Healey and Bury North MP James Frith, now that building work is nearly finished and the apartments are being fitted out.

To read the full story, please see here: <https://www.sixtownhousing.org/about-us/news/flagship-extra-care-scheme-ready-to-open-in-new-year/>