Stockport Homes Group named Triple Finalist in National Awards

Stockport Homes Group has been named as a triple finalist in this year's national 24housing Awards. The three categories are 'Care and Support Provider of the Year'; 'Repairs and Maintenance Provider of the Year'; and 'Housing Professional of the Year' for Customer Safety Manager, Kate Crowther. The winners will be revealed at an award ceremony in Coventry on 10 October 2019.

Founded in 2013 with the aim of celebrating the very best that the housing sector has to offer, the 24housing Awards have become an evening of celebration, reflection and recognition of the UK housing sector and its professionals whose job it is to provide a vital resource to some of the most vulnerable people in the country.

Jenny Osbourne, Chair of Stockport Homes' Board said, "We are delighted to have been shortlisted in three categories in this year's 24housing Awards. This is a great achievement and acknowledgement of the hard work, passion and dedication of staff across the Group, who demonstrate exceptional commitment to delivering excellent services to our customers. Special congratulations to Kate Crowther who is an inspirational role model within our sector and a champion for the Group's core values of: Ambition, Social Responsibility, Passion, Innovation, Respect and Excellence.
