

Published 18 May 2020

A Letter from the Minister of Housing setting out the measures that are in place to support social housing residents during the next phase towards reopening society has been published today.

The Letter from Christopher Pincher, Minister of State for Housing, to social housing residents in England setting out all the measures that are in place to support social housing residents during the next phase towards reopening society.

The letter includes information about maintenance and repairs, gas safety checks, remediation works, home moves, support for domestic abuse victims and anti-social behaviour.

The letter is available to download here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/coronavirus-covid-19-letter-to-social-housing-residents>